Get Job Ready packages - terms and conditions

Maximum Data Solutions Pty Ltd (further 'the Organisation') designed a set of 'get job ready' packages to assist those who struggles to find a job, due to the lack of experience, formal education or the lack of specific skills.

The packages are distributed 'as is' and do not carry any liability explicit or implied and are meant to be the guidelines, based on many years of experience in IT industry. Although every effort is made to make sure that the packages are error-free, anyone who wishes to use the information provided is doing it at its own risk and must perform own due diligence.

The Organisation offers the information as a step-by-step guide to get job-ready, with clear instructions of what skills/tools/methodologies are currently in demand, some packages offer experience working under the guidance of seasoned professionals (in non-payable role of a volunteer or an apprentice), suggests the 'roadmap' to gain necessary skills, provides advice on improving resume-building and interview-ready skills.

It is strongly advised to undertake own research before participating in any activities offered by Organisation, and when in doubt contact the Organisation official representatives to acquire more information.

All packages that include participation fees come with a separate Service Level Agreement (SLA) that needs to be signed by all the participants prior to beginning the package.

The Organisation does not provide any formal education or accreditation, does not provide visa or immigration advice and does not guarantee the job at the completion of the course.

The Organisation, its owners, officers or representatives (including volunteers and referees) cannot be held liable and cannot be sued for any damage explicit or implied. We strongly encourage you to seek advice from an external council, and/or advice the Organization representatives, prior to purchasing or using the product, if you experience any doubts or challenges using the product.
